This is a marvellous opportunity for an inspiring Teacher to join our exciting journey as we embark on becoming an Outstanding provision for children with Special Needs.

St Nicholas is a popular choice for parents of children with special needs in Croydon. We are rated as a Good school by Ofsted (2023).

St Nicholas School is a good community Special school for 268 pupils aged 4-11 with MLD, SLD, ASD, Speech and Language Needs, Downs Syndrome and Complex Needs. We provide a bespoke education for pupils using 'state of the art' facilities that enable us to offer our pupils the full range of EYFS and National Curriculum as well as a broad and balanced curriculum matched to their individual needs. Our pupils are supported in small class sizes, by well qualified and experienced staff, to help them realise their full potential.

Are you:

- an excellent Primary or Special School Class Teacher with a creative approach?
- committed to inclusion and personalised learning for EVERY child?
- an excellent communicator and team player?
- experience of children with special needs including autism, moderate, complex or severe learning difficulties and speech and language difficulties?

Applications particularly welcome from EYFS/KS1 Teachers.

We can offer:

- Excellent career opportunities to work within a vibrant and successful special school on the verge of major expansion
- An ambitious, successful and vibrant place to work
- A supportive working culture that focuses on positive learning behaviour and high expectations for all children.

Safeguarding Statement

St Nicholas School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff to share this commitment. We are an equal opportunities and inclusive employer and we welcome applications from all people representative of our community.
